Vincent J. Naimoli

Managing General Partner and Chief Executive Officer

The man who secured Tampa Bay's long-awaited Major League Baseball franchise on March 9, 1995, continues to work as hard as anyone to build a championship team.

Taking the torch from a long line of community leaders, in 1991 Naimoli accepted the challenge of bringing the National Pastime to the region. Summoning the grit and problem-solving savvy that took him from a humble start in Paterson, N.J., to an NROTC scholarship at Notre Dame (U.S.M.C. option), two master's degrees, the engineering and business worlds, and legendary status as a corporate turnaround specialist, he rallied civic and financial backers to the baseball cause. Naimoli had the ticket-buying public behind him, too, and on March 31, 1998, a $250-million-a-year economic entity began play at Tropicana Field.

Naimoli forged a naming-rights deal with Tropicana Products that will enable St. Petersburg to receive payments of more than $13 million over the life of the contract, and he and fellow Rays owners paid for improvements at The Trop and the club's spring stadium, Progress Energy Park, Home of Al Lang Field. He insisted that Tropicana Field's design reflect baseball traditions, among them asymmetrical outfield dimensions, seats close to the action, and dirt base paths. Ever the engineer, he let innovation enhance that traditional feel by arranging the purchase of a revolutionary grasslike playing surface, FieldTurf, for the air-conditioned dome before the 2000 season, earning unanimous approval from the league, players, fans and media. Old-time details blend with modern comforts to create a stadium ranked second in the majors by a group of fans who watched games at every one on their 30 Ballpark Millennium Tour.

While building a franchise from within, Naimoli also has focused on the game's welfare. In addition to serving on MLB's committees for International Relations, Legislative Affairs and Equal Opportunity, he was named in January 1999 to the Blue Ribbon Task Force on Baseball Economics, whose recommendations addressed longstanding problems.

On May 8, 2004, he was be inducted into the National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame along with fellow inductees Dan Marino, John Calipari and Frank Viola. In January of this year, Naimoli was chosen as an Honorary Chief Master Sergeant at MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa.

As CEO of Anchor Industries International, Naimoli was voted 1995 Florida Entrepreneur of the Year in the "turnaround" category. In 1999 he joined former First Lady and current Senator Hillary Clinton, Senator John Glenn and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court William Rehnquist in receiving the Ellis Island Medal of Honor from the National Ethnic Coalition of Organizations. He also has served on financial and athletic committees at alma mater Notre Dame, as well as serving as Chairman of the Notre Dame College Business Administration Advisory Council. In addition, he chaired the University of Tampa Board of Trustees, and serves on the board at Fairleigh Dickinson University, where he earned an M.B.A. magna cum laude before completing Harvard Business School's advanced management program in 1974. In the community, Naimoli has received numerous honors for service, including the first Bridging the Bay Award, in 1996.

One of four children of a second-generation Italian immigrant who worked for the New York subway system and became a self-taught stationary engineer, Naimoli graduated from Notre Dame in 1959 out of Paterson Central High School. He still attends Fighting Irish football games with his wife, Lenda, who retired as an Eastern Airlines flight attendant after 24 years and who has an identical twin, Mrs. J.E. (Glenda) Young. He has four daughters — Christine, an Arizona State graduate; Tory Ann Jarvis, Stephens College and Kellogg Graduate School alumna; Alyson, a Notre Dame graduate; and Lindsey, currently matriculating at Notre Dame — and three Jarvis grandchildren: Jack Burke, Matthew Vincent and William Joseph.

Chuck LaMar

Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager

Senior Vice President and General Manager Chuck LaMar begins his tenth year with the Rays as he continues to operate the club's baseball operations with a heavy emphasis on scouting and player development. As a result, the Rays have a developed a heralded nucleus of young players including All-Star Carl Crawford, Rocco Baldelli, Delmon Young, B.J. Upton, Scott Kazmir, Jeff Niemann and Dewon Brazelton, a group whose average age is just under 22 years.

All were acquired through the draft except Kazmir who was obtained in a trade with the New York Mets last July.

LaMar has assembled an experienced and respected baseball operations staff and has led them through nine amateur drafts in addition to the expansion draft.

As testament to his scouting acumen, LaMar was named to the selection committee for the 2000 United States Olympic Gold-Medal-wining team and to the advisory committee for the 2000 Major League Futures All-Star Game. The previous year he was named to the Pan Am Games Selection Committee.

Chuck has been a leader in the community as well. The Chuck LaMar Mercury Marine Grand Slam Celebrity Fishing Tournament, contested the past seven Novembers in the waters off St. Petersburg, has raised more than $1 million for the Tampa-based Pediatric Cancer Foundation. LaMar has been involved in a number of other local charities, including the YMCA, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay, Clearwater for Youth and the Suncoast Children's Dream Fund.

LaMar came to the Rays shortly after the franchise was founded in 1995, following five years in Atlanta as director of scouting and player development and then assistant general manager for player personnel. With the Braves, LaMar helped oversee a minor league system that national publications repeatedly ranked No. 1, and he helped implement baseball's first minority intern program in the areas of scouting and player development. With Tampa Bay in 1996, he established the Career Initiative Program, which promotes diversity by exposing members of minority groups to the player development, scouting and conditioning aspects of baseball.

LaMar started his major league career in 1985 as a scouting supervisor with the Reds, helping build a world champion as he later did with the Braves. He directed Pittsburgh's minor league operations in 1989 and 1990, and the Pirates won their last three division crowns in 1990-92.

The native of Twin Falls, Idaho, captained three sports at Madison High School in Houston, Texas. He was baseball captain at Texas Christian, leading TCU in the Southwest Conference hitting in 1977, graduating in '78. He taught and coached at St. Thomas High in Houston, then served as an assistant coach at Indiana and head coach at Mary Hardin-Baylor, in Belton, Texas.

Three members of Chuck's family played minor league ball: grandfather Charles Hart LaMar, father Charles William LaMar, and younger brother Danny, a first-round draft choice of the Reds in 1979. Chuck, wife Cheryl and Sarah (22), Emily (20) and Charlie (12) reside in Clearwater.

John P. Higgins

Senior Vice President of Administration/General Counsel

John P. Higgins joined the Devil Rays organization as its first employee on April 1, 1995, when he was named the team's senior vice president and general counsel. He serves as the team's attorney, managing all contractual and legal matters, in addition to working closely with the sales, marketing and baseball operations departments. In April of 1999, his duties were expanded when he was named chief financial officer, and in that capacity he oversees the organization's accounting, finance and office administration.

Higgins has practiced law in the Tampa Bay area since 1979, specializing in corporate, commercial and real estate law. He is also a certified public accountant. For three years, he represented Vince Naimoli and the rest of the Tampa Bay ownership group in its efforts to acquire a Major League Baseball franchise. In addition to his responsibilities with the Devil Rays, he is "of counsel" to the Holland & Knight law firm.

Higgins received his bachelor of business administration degree from the University of Notre Dame in 1975 and his juris doctorate degree from Duke University School of Law in 1979. He resides in St. Petersburg, his home since 1960, with his wife, Robin, and sons, Sean Patrick (19) and Patrick Ryan (16). He has served as chairman of the St. Petersburg Area Chamber of Commerce and the Pinellas Association for Retarded Children and on the boards of numerous area charitable and civic organizations. He currently serves on the Board of Trustees of St. Petersburg Catholic High School

David J. Auker

Senior Vice President of Business Operations

A twenty-one year veteran of sports administration, Dave Auker returned to the Devil Rays on December 1, 2003 as Senior Vice President of Business Operations. In his new role, Auker oversees Customer Relations, Ticket Sales, Marketing Partnerships, Public Relations and Community Relations.

He previously had served as the Rays Vice President of Sales & Marketing in 1998. RAYS IN THE COMMUNITY

On Nov. 6, Rays several Rays players and cocches, including Aubrey Huff, conducted an instructional clinic for the players from the Hardee County Little League in Wauchula. That community was among the hardest hit by the hurricanes that crossed the penninsula in the summer of 2004.

The Tampa Bay Devil Rays and its charitable arm, the Rays of Hope Foundation, continued their commitment to giving back to the community in 2004 with more than $1 million in grants, in-kind contributions and game tickets to more than 800 organizations in the West Central Florida region. Whether it be the restoration of youth baseball fields, hurricane relief or response to numerous donation requests, the Rays and its Foundation remain focused on helping our youth, supporting education and endorsing general wellness and prevention programs.

When disaster struck the State of Florida in what was the most active hurricane season in the state's history, the Rays responded in several ways. Initially, the club partnered with the United Way of Tampa Bay and set up collection points at home games in August and September to aid relief efforts for those affected by the hurricanes. $65,000 was contributed by fans, players, coaches and the Rays organization along with several tons of supplies.

In November, Rays players Aubrey Huff, Doug Waechter and Matt Diaz and coaches Lee Elia and Tom Foley conducted an instructional clinic for the players from the Hardee County Little League in Wauchula, an area particularly hard hit by the storms. The Rays provided instruction to the Little Leaguers, gifts, and delivered a much needed morale boost to the league and its supporters. The players also presented a check from the Rays of Hope Foundation to help the league replace baseball equipment lost in the storms.

The Rays Youth Baseball Field Renovation Program followed up its Belmont Heights Park renovation with another Little League field, Rowlett Park in Tampa. The project started with volunteers from MetLife, Devil Rays staff and the City of Tampa Parks and Recreation

In mid-July, the Devil Rays hosted the RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) Southeast Regional Tournament at the Raymond A. Naimoli Complex, with the championship game being held at Tropicana Field. Nearly 300 children from Memphis, Atlanta, Miami, Bradenton, Tampa, St. Petersburg and Clearwater participated in three divisions. The winners of each division advanced to the RBI World Series in Detroit. RBI is a grassroots outreach program designed to promote interest in baseball, increase the self-esteem of disadvantaged children and encourage kids to stay in school. Managed by Major League Baseball in partnership with the Boys and Girls Clubs of America and Rawlings Sporting Goods, the RBI program reaches over 120,000 youth playing in 185 cities worldwide. The Rays have sponsored leagues in Tampa and St. Petersburg since 1997.

Most of the Rays' monetary contributions in 2004 were given by its Rays of Hope Foundation. The Foundation presented major gifts to the YMCA of Greater St. Petersburg, Gulf Coast Division of Children's Home Society of Florida, Hillsborough Education Foundation, Pinellas County Education Foundation and St. Anthony's Hospital Foundation.

Centerplate, the Rays' concessionaire, once again worked with the Rays and local charities who were given the opportunity to raise money at Devil Rays home games. This was done by volunteers manning the concession stands, a community partnership that has help raised about $4.625 million for Tampa Bay area charitable organizations in the Rays seven years of existence.

The Rays hosted their Fourth "Grand Slam Gala" in March to benefit the Rays of Hope Foundation and its programs. All of the team, players and coached attended the party which raised more than $60,000 last year.

The Rays and the Muscular Dystrophy Association "Shirts Off Our Back" night is when fans buy chances to win the game-worn uniform tops of each player following the last home game of the season. This night has helped the Muscular Dystrophy Association raise close to $100,000 the past seven seasons. The Rays organization has proudly donated the uniforms for such a worthy cause. The 2005 "Shirts Off Our Back" Day will be on October 2 vs. Baltimore.

The Rays annual community relations caravans made more than 25 stops in the Tampa Bay area the week of February 5-13. Rays players, broadcasters, front office staff and Raymond, the team mascot, met fans throughout the region. Visits to Tampa's MacDill Air Force Base; Boys and Girls Clubs, the Science Center in St. Petersburg; St. Joseph's Children's Hospital and All Children's Hospital in St. Petersburg were included in the itinerary. Players, coaches and front office staff attended luncheons hosted by the Chambers of Commerce in Pinellas, Manatee/Sarasota Counties and Tampa.

In 2001, the Devil Rays initiated the Tony Saunders Courage Award given annually to a local student/athlete who best exemplifies the courage, character, competitive desire and fighting spirit of the former Devil Rays pitcher. Student/athletes who have either demonstrated extraordinary effort or excelled in their sport while overcoming any form of adversity merit consideration. The

The Devil Rays Wives presented a check for $62,000 to the ALS Association (Lou Gehrig's disease), the proceeds from their annual celebrity dinner where Devil Rays players served as waiters. The event has raised approximately $330,000 in six years.

The Chuck LaMar Mercury Marine Grand Slam Celebrity Fishing Tournament in St. Petersburg raised $300,000 last November 12-14, bringing the seven-year sum to more than $1 million in total funds generated for the Pediatric Cancer Foundation.

For the second consecutive year, Rays Manager Lou Piniella hosted the Abilities Golf Tournament in St. Petersburg at the Bayou Club on November 15. The tourney benefited the Abilities Foundation's B&G Endowment Fund which supports the emergency employment, housing and health needs of people with disabilities.

The team hosted its annual Thanksgiving dinner for the needy as more than 25 employees and members of the coaching staff served over 400 meals at Society of St. Vincent de Paul in St. Petersburg. The Rays also hosted their annual holiday party for children from the Boys and Girls Clubs of the Suncoast at Tropicana Field. In addition to the fun and festivities at the party and the opportunity to visit with Rays players, each youngster got a new pair of shoes courtesy of the Devil Rays.

At every Tuesday home game, the Rays host a youngster from either the Make-A-Wish Foundation or the Children's Dream Fund. That youngster serves as honorary bat boy and meets the Rays players and coaches prior to the game.

Former Ray Fred McGriff's five-some won the Third Annual Rays of Hope Golf Tournament on March 1 at the Renaissance Vinoy Resort and Golf Club in St. Petersburg. The sold-out tournament has netted over $110,000 for charitable causes in the Tampa Bay area during its three years in existence.

Silent auctions featuring unique, autographed memorabilia were held at Tropicana Field at every Saturday home game. The money raised went to the Rays of Hope Foundation to be used for its grant program.

X-Ray Report

■ In 2004, Danys became a father for the first time on June 20 when he and his wife, Mireya, celebrated the birth of Daniella Lucia. Two months later, his parents, Miriam and Gilberto, arrived in the United States from Cuba for the first time. Parents of defected Cuban athletes must wait five years before they can leave Cuba. They met their daughter-in-law and their granddaughter for the first time and saw Danys pitch for the first time since the mid-'90s with the Cuban National team. Danys defected to Costa Rica prior to the last game of the Pan American Games on August 1, 1999, while in Winnipeg, Canada. He pitched for the gold-medal winning Cuban National Team. He signed with the Indians in November of that year.

■ Danys studied physics in Cuba.

■ Danys is the 4th Cuban-born player to wear a TB uniform joining Rolando Arrojo (1998-99), Jose Canseco (1999-00) and Rey Ordonez (2003).

■ Is an animal lover. Has a boxer "Lennox" named after British world heavyweight champion boxer Lennox Lewis.

The surgery was performed by Dr. Richard Steadman at the Steadman-Hawkins Clinic in Vail, Colorado. Rocco is expected to resume baseball activity in six to nine months from the date of the surgery...Rocco injured the knee on October 24 while playing baseball with his younger brother, Dante, in the backyard of his home in Cumberland, Rhode Island.

Rocco has broken his right hand four times, his left hand once, and his right leg once...Suffered an injury in which he shattered his tibia and severed tendons in his right leg and didn't play baseball his freshman and sophomore years of high school...The injury caused him to miss school enough so that he was given another year of eligibility... Suffered a pulled lateral oblique muscle seven games into his senior season.

X-Ray Report

■ Rocco has a website – roccobaldelli.com – which sells autographed cards, bats, caps, etc. and the proceeds go toward providing deserving youngsters scholarships to Bishop Hendricken in Warwick, Rhode Island – his former high school.

■ He is also involved with the Food Allergy and Anaphlaxis Network. Rocco's youngest brother, Dante, has severe allergies including an allergy to peanuts. He was able to watch Rocco play a handful of times last season at Tropicana Field, Boston and Cleveland.

■ Was an all-state player in baseball, volleyball and basketball at Bishop Hendricken... Informed college recruiters as a junior that he was going to play baseball...Had decided on Wake Forest over Princeton had he not signed with the Rays... Was also a president's list student at Bishop Hendricken and often tutored students in physics.

■ Several years back, Rocco's father, Dan, constructed a batting cage for Rocco in the basement of his business building – the Hava Java Coffee Shop, ABAL Check Cashing and Mr. Pawn- all under one roof.

■ Is said to have a 40-inch vertical jump...Has high-jumped 6-2 and ran a 5.5 in the 55 yard run in high school.

■ Has a tattoo of the MLB logo on his left calf.

X-Ray Report

Danny and wife Frandy are instrumental in distributing food to the needy in their native Dominican Republic annually at Christmas time.

2004 Season

- Danny had the busiest big league season of his 12-year career, appearing in 141 games as the Diamondbacks everyday rightfielder... appeared in 20 more games in 2004 than any previous big league season...he hovered near the .300 mark for the majority of the year before a season-ending 3-for-32 slide finished him off at .286.
- Hit safely in a career-best 21 consecutive games from April 7-30, batting .390 (32-for-82), the third best streak in Arizona franchise history and fourth best in the majors in 2004...his year began with an 0-for-3 season opener on April 6, then he doubled on April 7 against Colorado to jumpstart the streak...the highlight of the streak was on April 22 in Milwaukee when Bautista carried the Diamondbacks to victory with a club-record tying 5 hits in Arizona's 11-9 win in 15 innings over the Brewers...he set a career-high in both hits and RBI (5), while matching a personal best with a pair of home runs, the fourth multi-homer game of his career...followed the next day with a single against San Diego which extended his hitting streak to 15 games to tie a personal best set in 2000...he eclipsed his career best the following night against the Padres, then ran the streak to 21 games, trailing only Tony Womack (24 games in 2000) and Luis Gonzalez (30 games in 1999) in the team record book.
- Danny earned National League Player-of-the-Week honors for April 19-25, the first time he's won the award...he kept his average above the .300 mark until an 0-for-3 on June 25 in Detroit dropped him to .299, but for just a day...he responded by going 16-for-35 (.457) over his next 8 games with 3 homers and 10 RBI to up his season mark back to .318...following a couple of hitless affairs, Danny put together 4 consecutive 2-hit games from July 7-20 to get his average to .322, which was the high-water mark for the remainder of the season.
- Had his numbers fall significantly during the second half of the campaign as the season opening lineup fell prey to a variety of injuries as evidenced by one home run and 17 RBI in his final 64 games of the year...he opened the year as a regular in either the #6 or #7 spot in the batting order, but the overwhelming number of injuries led to his ascension to the #3 or #4 slots over the second half.
- Overall, he was one of the more clutch hitting performers on the season, batting .311 (38-for-122) with runners in scoring position, including a .408 mark (20-for-49) when there were 2 out in those situations...his 20 grounded into double plays set a club record, eclipsing the previous mark of 19 (Matt Williams in 1998 and Luis Gonzalez in 2003).

Career Highlights

- After having his 2002 season cut short due to a shoulder dislocation in May, Danny returned to serve as the Opening Day rightfielder in 2003 for a third consecutive year.

- He struggled out of the gate, hitting just .111 (3-for-27) through the first 9 games...he had 3 hits and a career-high tying 4 RBI on May 23 vs. San Diego, snapping a 2-2 tie with a go-ahead, 3-run homer in the eighth inning of a 5-3 win...the roundtripper was his first since May 3, 2002, spanning 152 at bats, while the 4 RBI game was the second of his career, first since Sept. 30, 1993, while with Detroit.
- Suffered a left hamstring strain while running out a grounder on the artificial turf of the Metrodome in Minneapolis on June 14, landing him on the disabled list on June 19...he was activated on July 23.
- Picked up his 500th career hit with a sixth inning double off of the Giants' Matt Herges on July 24 at Pacific Bell Park...doubled as a pinch hitter on August 5 vs. the Expos, his first pinch hit of the season, igniting a 19-game stretch during which he hit .373 (19-for-51) with 5 doubles and 13 RBI through Sept. 11...tied his career and season-high with 4 RBI on August 23, going 2-for-4 with a 3-run homer and 3 runs...was 3-for-4 with 3 RBI and 3 runs on Sept. 24 at Coors Field, lacing a triple, a solo homer and a 2-run blast, his third career 2-homer game and first since the opener of a twinbill on August 31, 2001, at San Diego.

■ A vital ingredient of the 2001 World Series title club, Danny's post-season performance earned him the Opening Day rightfield job in 2002 and he was off to a terrific start until one play ended his 2002 season...he attempted to make a diving catch on a sinking liner hit by San Francisco's Benito Santiago on May 22 at Bank One Ballpark, suffering a dislocated left shoulder that required surgery to repair a torn labrum...at the time of his injury, Danny was hitting .325 (50-for-154) with 6 home runs and 23 RBI through 40 games...he hit safely in 16 of the first 17 games and 24 of the first 27...included was his second career 4-hit game on May 7 in a win at home over the Pirates.

- Dating back to August 26, he batted .391 (27-for-69) in his last 22 games to raise his season average 41 points and hit over .300 for the first time in his major league career (.302)...matched a career-best with 2 home runs in the first game of a doubleheader in San Diego on August 31 to stake the club to a 4-1 win.

■ Was a .350 pinch hitter (14-40) in 2001 which included a club record tying 4 consecutive pinch hits from May 18-June 3, starting with a homer in Wrigley Field on May 18, his fifth career pinch blast.

- 2001 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS – A key component in Arizona's success, Bautista hit .583 (7-for-12) against the Yankees, starting 3 of the 5 games he participated in while providing outstanding defense...he made the start in Game #2 against Andy Pettitte and went 2-for-3 with a double and an RBI in Arizona's 4-0 win...was 1-for-2 in abbreviated work when the series shifted to Yankee Stadium, then provided a huge offensive spark as the D'Backs rebounded to win the final 2 games and claim the title...Bautista started against Pettitte again in Game #6, providing 3 hits and 5 RBI, the 19th player in World Series history to knock in 5 runs, first since Florida's Gary Sheffield in Game #3 of the '97 series against Cleveland, and an RBI shy of the Fall Classic record of 6 set in 1960 by the Yankees' Bobby Richardson...he started the following night in Game #7 against Roger Clemens and delivered again, staking Arizona to a 1-0 lead with a run scoring double in the sixth inning...Danny was 0-for-6 vs. the Cardinals in the Division Series, but was in the center of the clinching celebration when he scored the game-winning run in Game #5 on Tony Womack's single that sent Arizona into the NLCS...Bautista's lone start in the NLCS against the Braves was in Game #5, going 1-for-4 with an RBI and a diving catch that kept Atlanta off the board in what turned out to be a 3-2 victory propelling the D'Backs into the World Series...all told, Danny went 8-for-16 in the post-season, including his 7-for-12 World Series work.

■ Danny was acquired on June 9, 2000 in exchange for Andy Fox and batted .317 over the remainder of the year...his first hit as a Diamondback was a solo homer vs. Anaheim on June 11 to give Arizona a 3-2 win...recorded his first career 2-homer game on July 27 in St. Louis.

■ Was released by the Braves at the end of spring training, 1999 and signed a minor league contract with Florida on April 8...opened the year with Calgary (AAA), but hit .319 in 38 games and had his contract purchased on June 11...hit safely in 36 of his 47 starts for the Marlins...made his return to Atlanta on July 6 and homered against his former mates...hit his fourth career pinch home run on Sept. 1 at St. Louis.

■ Mainly used as a defensive specialist for the Braves in 1998, appearing in 82 games but starting just 27...was on the disabled list from April 17-May 7 with a partial tear of the labrum in his left shoulder, then returned to the shelf from Aug. 27-Sept. 17 with a partial tear of the right medial collateral ligament.

- 1998 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS – Saw action in a pair of Division Series games as a defensive replacement, working in 5 of 6 games of the NLCS, including starts in Games #3 and #6.

■ Began the 1997 season with Richmond (AAA), remaining there until June 23 recall to Atlanta...visit to the Braves was short-lived as his contract was designated for assignment on July 5...he was purchased from AAA on July 10 and returned to the Braves...hit pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the 9th on Aug. 6 to defeat the Cards, 4-3...Opened the 1996 season with the Tigers making 18 outfield starts before being dealt to Atlanta on May 31 for outfielder Anton French...season came to an abrupt end when he was hit by a pitch from Cardinals' Jeff Parrett on June 27, incurring a broken nose, a fractured orbital floor under the left eye and blurred vision...underwent successful surgery performed by Dr. Robert Crow on June 29...Spent the first 4 months of the 1995 season with Detroit before being optioned to Toledo (AAA) on Aug. 8...was recalled on Sept. 1...homered in 3 consecutive games from Sept. 16-24...Danny was Detroit's opening day rightfielder in 1994 but was optioned to Toledo on April 19...recalled on May 26 and started 13 straight games before breaking the middle finger on his left hand while attempting to make a diving catch on June 7 vs. Boston...Spent 1993 with London (AA), hitting .285 in 117 games and earned a September recall to the big league club...debuted as a pinch-runner on Sept. 15 vs. the Blue Jays...made his first major league start on Sept. 17 against Cleveland, collecting an infield hit off of Jason Grimsley in first big league at bat...hit his first major league homer on Oct. 1 in Yankee Stadium off of Frank Tanana...in 1992, displayed outstanding outfield arm with Fayetteville, logging 17 assists from rightfield.

WHAT IS A DEVIL RAY?

Tampa Bay was granted a major league franchise on March 9, 1995. During the weeks surrounding that date, more than 7,000 suggested names were submitted by the people of Tampa Bay. Suggestions included such creative choices as Fruit Blossoms, Pteradactyls, Bigfeet, Backcrackers, Snowbirds and Toads.

The largest percentage of those suggestions included the name "Rays," an order of large, graceful fish that live primarily in the tropical waters off Florida's coast.

In a subsequent telephone contest in which more than 70,000 calls were received from Tampa Bay area residents, "Devil Rays" won out over "Manta Rays." Both names are actually used to describe the same fish. Devil Rays are the largest member of the Ray family measuring up to 23 feet long and weighing as much as 2,400 pounds. They are found in Florida waters: the Gulf of Mexico and along the Atlantic Coasts of the southern United States. They are massive, but gentle creatures, harmless to humans. The Devil Ray gets its name from the cephalic fins on the head that look like devil's horns. Although they are quite large, Devil Rays are known to leap from the water and can sail up to 20 feet in the air. Females of the species actually lay their eggs in flight and their offspring are known as "Pup Rays." Devil Rays are virtually impossible to keep in captivity.

TRIPLE PLAY

On Sept. 13, 2002 at Toronto, the Rays pulled off the first triple play in club history (L-4-6-3) with Dewon Brazelton on the mound in his major league debut. It was only the 3rd time in major league history that a pitcher was backed by a triple play in his major league debut and the first time since August 31, 1919 (St. Louis Browns' pitcher Rolla "Lefty" Mapel in the 2nd inning vs. Detroit). The others: September 18, 1917 (2nd game of a doubleheader) Pittsburgh's Elmer Ponder vs. the Boston Braves and April 23, 1895 Boston Braves' pitcher Zeke Wilson started a triple play against the Washington Nationals.

2004 Season

- Posted the AL's 3rd best home ERA at 2.90 (IP-87, H-71, ER-28) and was 6-3 at Tropicana Field...Opponents batted .220 (71-322) off him at home.
- On the road he was 0-5 in 8 games (all starts) with a 9.62 ERA and opponents batted .350 (50-143) off him.
- Has an 0-11 career road record in 15 games, all starts...Of the 240 active pitchers with at least 15 career road starts, he is the only one without a win...The last player to start his career 0-11 on the road was Minnesota's Terry Felton (0-12, 1980-82)...The majors' longest current road losing streaks: Scott Elarton, Cleveland (12), Brazelton (11), Seattle's Ryan Franklin (10).
- Joined the club from AAA Durham on June 2 and had an immediate impact...Rays were 9-5 in his first 14 starts...He went 2-0 in 5 games, 4 starts in June and the Rays won all four of his starts...His 2.05 ERA that month was the 3rd best month in club history...He allowed 2 ER or less in 8 of his first 11 starts.
- Thru August 22, he was 6-4 with a 3.31 ERA (IP-84.1, ER-31) in his first 15 games, 14 starts...From that point forward he was 0-4 with an 8.17 ERA (IP-36.1, ER-33) in 7 games, all starts...The Rays were 1-6 in his last 7 starts... His last win came August 22 vs. Oakland in a 2-1 win over Mark Redman...Dewon's line: IP-7, H-5, R-1, ER-1, BB-1, SO-1.
- On June 25 at home vs. the Marlins he was four outs from a no-hitter when Mike Lowell doubled...Was then lifted as he pitched a professional-high 125 pitches (7.2-IP, 1-H, 6-BB, 5-SO)... Danys Baez finished up to preserve the 2-0 shutout, Brazelton's second ML win, first since May 30, 2003 vs. Anaheim...Matched Tony Saunders (April 22, 1999 vs. Baltimore) for longest into a game any Ray has carried a no-hitter.

- Also carried a no-hitter thru 5.0 July 22 at Minnesota...got a no dec. in a 7-5 Rays loss.
- On Aug. 6 vs. Seattle he worked a career-high 8 innings allowing only 2 hits – both in the 3rd inning – but didn't get the decision in the Rays' 2-1 "walk-off" win in 10 innings....Rays won the game on a controversial obstruction call which allowed Carl Crawford to score from third base on Tino Martinez's short fly to leftfielder Raul Ibanez...3B umpire Paul Emmel ruled that shortstop Jose Lopez, in covering third base, attempted to block Crawford's view of Ibanez making the catch. Crawford was awarded home on the obstruction call and Lopez was charged with an error.
- Went 4-4, 4.71 in 10 starts at Durham...in his last 3 starts at Durham he pitched to a 2.75 ERA (IP-19.2, H-19, R-6,BB-6, SO-19).
- Didn't allow a home run in 49.2 innings at Durham and allowed only one round tripper in his first 50.2 innings with the Devil Rays.

- Spent most of his first season at AA Orlando, making 26 starts, going 5-9 with a 3.33 ERA (9th in the Southern League) and earned team pitcher-of-the-year honors.
- Rode a 6-game win streak prior to joining Rays as he was promoted to AAA for the Bulls' final 10 days of the regular season and won his only regular season start with them, a 2-0 combined SHO Sept. 1 vs. Charlotte (5.0-IP, 5-H, 0-R, 1-BB, 6-K).

■ Bradenton native donates $50 to Boys and Girls Clubs of Manatee County for each appearance he makes.

■ Was the Rays' lone rep at the 74th All-Star Game in Chicago in 2003…Did not pitch…At 28 years, 6 months and 29 days, he was the 6th oldest rookie to be an All-Star, the 3rd oldest rookie pitcher…He and KC's Mike MacDougal became the 13th and 14th rookie pitchers to make the AL All-Star squad, and the 3rd and 4th rookie relievers.

2004 Season

- Appeared in 56 games, compiling a record of 3-3 with a 3.47 ERA, lowest among qualifying Rays relievers (80.1-IP, 77-H, 32-R, 31-ER, 12-HR, 23-BB, 36-SO).
- Entered the game with the Rays trailing or tied 34 times tossing an inning or more in all but 10 outings…stranded 20 of the 31 runners he inherited.
- Tossed 2.0 scoreless innings in relief of Victor Zambrano on Opening Day as the Rays defeated the Yankees 8-3 in Tokyo.
- Followed that with 1.1 shutout innings against New York in the Rays' home opener, a 9-4 win April 6.
- Threw a career-high 4.1 innings on Sept. 19 in a 9-7 loss at Toronto in which he allowed just an unearned run (2-H, 2-BB, 4-SO).
- Pitched to a 2.82 ERA (44.2-IP, 14-ER) against the AL East compared to a 4.29 mark (35.2-IP, 17-ER) against everyone else…was especially stingy against division foe Toronto, allowing just 2 ER in 11.0 IP (1.54 ERA) over 5 games.
- Allowed a career-high tying 4 runs in a 10-6 loss (in 10 innings) Aug. 31 to Baltimore when Melvin Mora (solo) and Jay Gibbons (2-R) both went deep…one of three games the reliever was touched for multiple home runs (also July 1 & Sept. 27).
- From July 15-Aug. 27: 1.57 ERA (15-G, IP-23, H-18, R-4, ER-4, BB-5, SO-13)…ERA dropped to 2.80, his lowest of the season since April.
- Blew his lone save opportunity May 1 vs. Oakland allowing a game-tying solo home run to Eric Chavez…faced four batters without recording an out…snapped a 5.0 inning (4 G) scoreless streak.
- Lefties hit .270 (43-159) with 7 HR off him in 2004…had held left-handed batters to a .220 (44-200) average and 7 HR for his career entering this season.
- Two of his three losses came in walk-off fashion: Cleveland's Casey Blake with a solo home run at Jacobs Field on May 14 and a bases loaded walk to Chicago's Juan Uribe at U.S. Cellular Field on April 25.
- Allowed just 11.3 runners per 9 innings, 10th best among AL relievers.

■ Carl grew up just a few minutes from the future site of Houston's Minute Maid Park in what is known as the "Fifth Ward" neighborhood.

CARL, RICKEY, RAINES... In 2004, Crawford became the 4th youngest ever to win back-to-back league stolen base titles (AL or NL) behind Tim Raines (1981-82, Expos), Rickey Henderson (1980-81, A's) and Ben Chapman (1931-32, Yankees)...With a club record 59 steals, he had 23 more than anyone else in the AL, the biggest margin in the AL since 1989 when Rickey Henderson had 32 more than Cecil Espy...Was 2nd in the majors behind Milwaukee's Scott Podsednik (70).

Only five players since 1900 have stolen more bases than Carl before the age of 23... And, only 12 players in major league history have stolen more bases than Carl's 123 before their 24th birthday...The Rays are scheduled to play 108 games next season before Carl turns 24.

SEEING TRIPLE – When he turned 23 on August 5, he already had 32 career triples...In the last 75 years (since 1930), only 3 players had more triples before reaching 23: Arky Vaughan, Pitt, 1932-34 (40), Buddy Lewis, Washington, 1935-39 (38) and Garry Templeton, St. Louis, 1976-78 (33).

- Became the 11th player in American League history to reach 50 steals, 100 runs and 50 extra base hits in the same season...Only 5 players have done it in the last 50 years: Ichiro (2001), Rickey Henderson (1985-86-90), Brady Anderson (1992), Roberto Alomar (1993) and Kenny Lofton (1994-96)...Only 4 players in major league history have reached the same plateaus Crawford reached in hits (185), runs (104), extra base hits (56) and stolen bases (59) in the same season...Those players are Ty Cobb (1901-11-12), Juan Samuel (1984), Benny Kauff (1914) and Ben Chapman (1931).
- Was only the 7th active player to get 50 steals in each of his first two full seasons in the majors. The others: Tom Goodwin (1995-96), Roger Cedeno (1999, 01), Luis Castillo (1999-00), Kenny Lofton (1992-93), Marquis Grissom (1991-92) and Tony Womack (1997-98).

- His 185 hits are the 2nd highest in one season in club history behind Aubrey Huff's 198 in 2003.

- His 5th inning HR Sep 24 vs. TOR off Josh Towers traveled 451 ft., 2nd-longest HR at the Trop in 2004 (Manny Ramirez-458 feet)...Finished with 11 home runs, more than doubling his total from a year ago...in fact, had just 7 HR in 889 career AB entering season...His HR Aug. 20 vs. KC (off lefty Brian Anderson) was the first of his career off a southpaw (came in his 377th career AB vs. a LH)...Has 4 career leadoff HR, all this season...ties a club record for one season (Gerald Williams in 2000) and one shy of career mark (Randy Winn 5).

- Scored the game-winning run in the bottom of the 10th inning vs. Seattle on August 6 in one of the strangest endings in major league history...CC was on third base with one out when Tino Martinez flied out to Raul Ibanez in shallow LF. Crawford bluffed a start at home but returned to third. After Ibanez threw the ball back into the infield, 3B umpire Paul Emmel ruled that shortstop Jose Lopez, in covering third base, attempted to block Crawford's view of Ibanez making the catch. Crawford was awarded home on the obstruction call and Lopez was charged with an error.

X-Ray Report

■ Casey was acquired by the Rays on Super Bowl Sunday. That afternoon he was actually in the Tampa Bay area awaiting his arbitration hearing scheduled for the following morning at a downtown Tampa hotel. Following the deal and an interview with local reporters, he agreed to a one-year deal, plus an option, about two hours before kickoff.

2004 Season

- For the first time in his big league career Casey was used exclusively as a starter, finishing third on the Diamondbacks staff in starts (27), innings pitched (142.0) and strikeouts (117), despite missing the first 5 1/2 weeks to recover from surgery from the previous September...he went 4-15, with his loss total tied for second in the National League, while surrendering 31 home runs, tied for the sixth most.
- Arizona only scored 86 runs in his 27 starts, a 3.19 per game avg.
- His year began with 5 minor league rehab starts between El Paso (AA) and Tucson (AAA), allowing only 2 earned runs over a total of 19.1 innings, with opponents hitting at a .204 clip (11-for-54).
- He returned to a Major League mound on May 14 vs. Montreal, almost 8 months to the day of having left shoulder surgery, working 5.0 innings of a no decision, a contest the Expos won, 4-3.
- After 4 straight losses, he tossed 6.0 shutout innings at Baltimore on June 10 for his first triumph as a Diamondback, 3-0, allowing 5 hits with 5 K's...Fossum notched his first career win vs. a National League opponent on July 1, defeating the Padres, 7-5, allowing 3 runs in 6.0 inning.
- On July 23 against Colorado, he carried a no-hitter into the seventh inning, only to allow a pair of home runs and lost an 8-2 decision...on August 18, he notched his first win in almost 7 weeks, prevailing 6-3 over the Pirates, sparking a brief 2-game win streak.
- Following a no decision at Pittsburgh on August 23 in which he picked up his first big league hit,

Casey beat the Reds 6-3, on August 28...he was outstanding at Coors Field on September 23, achieving something no pitcher in the majors accomplished during the year, tossing 6.0 shutout innings and striking out 9 in the rarified air of Coors Field...unfortunately, the only man he faced in the seventh inning reached on a walk and scored the game-tying run after Fossum's departure as the D'Backs eventually lost a 2-1 decision in 10 innings...no pitcher from Colorado or any visiting club threw at least 6.0 shutout frames in Denver this year while fanning at least 9.

- He opened his career 0-for-26 at the plate, but was 4-for-16 over his final 8 starts.

Career Highlights

■ Casey opened the 2003 season in Boston's starting rotation for the first time in his career, but battled injury problems in splitting the season between the Red Sox, the disabled list and minor league stints with Portland (AA) and Pawtucket (AAA).

- Casey's year began by going 4-4 with a 5.76 ERA in 12 starts for the Red Sox through June 7...he was placed on the 15-day D.L. on June 8 with tendinitis in his left shoulder...after a rehab appearance at Portland and 3 more with Pawtucket, Fossum was activated by the Red Sox on July 17...he went 1-0 with a save and a 3.86 ERA in 3 relief appearances, earning a rescue with a 4-inning stint in Boston's 14-5 win on July 21 vs. Detroit.
- He was optioned to Pawtucket on July 28 and made 2 starts for the PawSox, posting a win and a 2.00 ERA...he was recalled August 8 to start the second game of a doubleheader that day against the Orioles, suffering a loss to Baltimore allowing 4 earned runs in 5.1 innings...Fossum made only 3 more appearances the remainder of the year before being shut down due to a recurrence of tendinitis in his pitching shoulder.
- He registered a season-high 8 strikeouts in his 2003 debut in a 14-5 win April 3 at Tampa Bay...he followed by fanning 7 in his second outing, on April 9 at Toronto, but did not record more than 5 strikeouts in any other appearance.

■ Casey made his first Major League Opening Day roster in 2002...he allowed one run in just two of his first 16 relief appearances, going 2-0 with a 1.17 ERA in that span.

- He was optioned to Pawtucket on June 25, where he went 0-3 with a 3.96 ERA in 5 games (3 starts) before being recalled back to Boston on July 24...he worked 7.0 innings of relief that night against Tampa Bay, the longest relief outing by a Red Sox pitcher since Tom Bolton went 7.1 frames on July 1, 1990...Casey also fanned 9 in that outing, the most K's by a Boston reliever since Diego Segui had 12 K over 7.2 innings on September 22, 1974, vs. Baltimore...the 9 relief K's by Fossum were the most in the majors since Randy Johnson struck out 16 Padres on July 18, 2001, in Qualcomm Stadium...Casey struck out a career-high 10 in a no decision vs. Cleveland on September 18.

■ Called up from Trenton (AA) on July 27, 2001 the first Red Sox hurler to make the jump from AA since Jim Ho Cho in 1998...Casey made his Major League debut with 1.0 inning of work on July 28 vs. the White Sox...he was optioned back to Trenton on August 1, but recalled just 2 days later...he recorded his first Major League win on August 6 against Texas, tossing 2.0 shutout innings in a 10-7 triumph...his first Major League start was on August 18 vs. Baltimore, the first time a southpaw started for the Red Sox since Pete Schourek on September 10, 2000...Casey earned his first win as a starter on September 2 vs. Detroit, allowing 2 earned runs over 5.0 innings.

■ Spent the entire 2000 season with Sarasota (A), leading all Class A pitchers with 3 shutouts...included was a no-hitter on August 7 vs. Clearwater, fanning 16 en route to a 2-0 win... he led all Red Sox minor league pitchers with 143 strikeouts...he was named the organization's Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Month in August, going 3-1 with a 1.54 ERA...his no-no also earned him Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for August 7-13... Casey was voted Sarasota's Pitcher of the Year...Fossum made 5 starts for Lowell in 1999 (Short-season A) with opponents hitting only .122 (6-for-49).

"Pat" Olsen Outstanding Pitcher Award in '99 and was a second team All-American in 1998.
- He was Boston's third pick in the first round (48th overall) in the 1999 June draft, a selection the Red Sox received for Arizona's free agent signing of Greg Swindell…Casey was originally drafted by the Diamondbacks in the seventh round of the 1996 draft, but elected to attend Texas A&M.

Tropicana Field

DIRT BASEPATHS

Tropicana Field is the first major league park in more than 20 years to feature artificial turf and dirt base paths. The two other current major league parks with artificial turf have only dirt cutouts around the bases and at the pitcher's mound (Rogers Centre, Metrodome). Only four other artificial turf stadia have ever featured dirt base paths: Houston's Astrodome (1966-71); San Francisco's Candlestick Park in 1971, Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium in the early '70s and the most recent, St. Louis' Busch Stadium (1970-76). Chicago's Comiskey Park had dirt basepaths with an Astroturf infield and grass outfield in the early '70s.

X-Ray Report

■ Aubrey's father, Aubrey II, was killed as an innocent bystander in a workplace domestic dispute when Aubrey was six. Mr. Huff was shot attempting to take away a gun from an armed man who had just shot his wife.

■ Aubrey's mother, Fonda, currently a teacher at Seminole High School in Pinellas County, raised Aubrey and his sister, Angela. On a single mother's salary, she persevered for her children and put aside a lot of things for herself to purchase a batting cage and a pitching machine for their yard outside of Mineral Wells, Texas. A softball player, Fonda, even pitched to her son.

■ While Aubrey was still in the minors, Fonda, moved to St. Petersburg and landed her teaching job getting to Tampa Bay a year ahead of Aubrey.

■ Has partnered with the Bucs' Derrick Brooks and the Lightning's Brad Richards to lead a series of equipment drives for needy youngsters in the Tampa Bay-Orlando area.

SINCE HIS PERMANENT ARRIVAL IN 2002 – Had been up with the Rays for parts of the 2000 and 2001 seasons, and began the 2002 season at AAA Durham after being one of the last cuts in spring training. Prior to Durham's opener, he suffered a broken cheekbone when he was hit by a throw during a workout.

Missed the first 3 weeks of the season and wasn't recalled by the Rays until the 49th game of the season. Since then, he has played in 432 of 436 Rays games including a club record 398 consecutive games, May 28, 2002 to August 21, 2004…That streak ended when he missed 3 games with back spasms…During that time, he has batted .307 (518-1690) with 86 home runs and 270 RBI in 432 games over 2-2/3 seasons.

His 518 hits over that span have been bettered by only six players: Ichiro-613, Albert Pujols-540, Juan Pierre-531, Michael Young-531, Miguel Tejada-526 and Todd Helton-522.

Already is the Rays' all-time career leader in seven offensive categories: games, at-bats, runs, hits, doubles, extra base hits and batting average.

LAST TWO SEASONS – Is one of six major leaguers to average .300, 30 home runs and 100 RBI over the last 2 seasons…Huff has averaged .304 with 32 home runs and 106 RBI in 2003 and 2004 combined…The others: Todd Helton (.353-33-107), Albert Pujols (.345-45-124), Vladimir Guerrero (.324-32-103), Manny Ramirez (.317-40-117) and Gary Sheffield (.310-38-127).

- Batted .323 (43-133, RBI-25) during the Rays' 26-7 run, May 20-June 26.
- Finished Aug. with a .385 avg. (37-96), the 2nd-best monthly avg. in club history behind .422 by McGriff in July, 1999... Batted .325 (93-286) with 17 home runs and 53 RBI in 74 games vs. the AL East.

DEVIL RAYS FIRST TO TRAIN AT HOME IN MODERN ERA

The Devil Rays' major league spring training home is Progress Energy Park, Home of Al Lang Field, in St. Petersburg, making the Tampa Bay franchise the first major league team to train in its home city since 1919 when the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Athletics both trained at home. Between 1943-45, the "War Years," travel restrictions forced teams to alter their routine of heading to warmer weather and some teams trained close to home. Six teams stayed within 100 miles of their home city: Boston Red Sox trained in nearby Medford, 1943-45; Washington Senators trained in a Washington suburb, College Park, MD, 1943-45; Philadelphia Phillies (1944-45) and Athletics (1943) each trained in Wilmington, DE, just 30 miles away; New York Yankees spent 1943 training at the home of Bruce Springsteen, Asbury Park, NJ, some 70 miles from the Big Apple; New York Giants were in Lakewood, NJ, 90 miles away, 1943-45; and the Phillies trained in Hershey, PA in 1943, approximately 100 miles from home.

ON THE CATWALK

There are four catwalks located above the playing surface at Tropicana Field. They are labeled the "A", "B", "C" and "D" rings with the lowest ring the "D" ring. The "D" ring ranges from 59 feet above the playing surface in CF to 121 feet behind home plate. The "C" ring ranges from 99 feet in CF to 146 behind home plate. The "B" ring ranges from 142 feet in CF to 173 feet behind home plate. And, the "A" ring ranges from 181 feet in CF to 194 feet behind home plate. In seven seasons, 56 fair balls have struck the catwalks: 13 off the "B" ring, 32 off the "C" ring and 11 off the "D" ring. The catwalks were hit 4 times in the 2004 season. ■ Doug's fiance Kristin Kravitz, teaches emotionally handicapped students in St. Petersburg.

■ Is a 1999 graduate of Northeast High School in St. Petersburg, located 4 1/2 miles from Tropicana Field. He's the 10th Florida-born player to play for the Rays, first from Pinellas County.

■ As a high school junior, he attended the Rays' inaugural game, March 31, 1998 vs. Detroit at Tropicana Field. He sat behind former Buccaneers and current Colts head coach Tony Dungy.

■ This winter he became a certified scuba diver while playing in Puerto Rico. He had never dived before.

■ Threw the first 9-inning no-hitter in Devil Rays history, striking out 10 and walking 3 for short-season A Hudson Valley against Pittsfield (Mets) on August 10, 2000...He struck out the last hitter of the game, but the batter advanced all the way to third when the ball eluded the catcher. Waechter calmly got the next batter to pop out to end the game.

■ Pronounced WECK-ter.

2004 Season

- Despite a season plagued by injuries, the 23-year old placed among AL rookie leaders in wins with 5 (T-7th), starts with 14 (6th) and IP with 70.1 (9th).
- His .252 opponents batting average was bettered by only SEA Bobby Madritsch (.232) and OAK Justin Duchscherer (.241) among AL rooks with at least as many innings pitched ...and only TOR David Bush (.206) was tougher against righthanders than Doug's .216.
- Allowed 20 hone runs in 70.1 innings...only 2 other pitchers in major league history have finished a season allowing 20+ home runs in 80 or fewer innings: Scott Klingenbeck (Balt-Minn, 1995, IP-79.2, HR-22) and Scott Allred (Minn, 1977, IP-77.1, HR-20).
- Rookie officially made the opening day roster March 30 in Tokyo, Japan, but was optioned to AAA Durham before game time to make room for outfielder Charles Gipson as Rays cut to 11 pitchers.
- Was slowed early in the season by a blister on the tip of his right middle finger and didn't make his season debut until April 15.
- Was initially recalled from Durham on April 24 when the Rays needed a 5th starter for the first time...started that day at Chicago and defeated Dan Wright 4-1 (6.0-IP, 4-H, 1-R/ER, 0-BB, 5-SO)...lone run allowed was a 4th-inning solo shot by Frank Thomas.
- His next start, April 30 vs. Oakland, was his season debut at Tropicana Field and lost 4-2...was ejected with two outs in the 7th after he hit Bobby Crosby with a pitch...Crosby followed Erubiel Durazo, who homered twice.
- Beat Cleveland 6-3, May 22 at Tropicana Field to snap a career-high 4-game losing skid...still pitched to a respectable 4.44 ERA over his 4-game skid (24.1-IP, 21-H, 12-ER)...Rays scored a total of 7 runs in his 4 defeats.

- The last of those four defeats was May 16 at Cleveland as he allowed 6 unearned runs on route to a 10-0 loss to C.C. Sabathia...was cruising thru 4 yielding just a pair of hits before a pair of Rays errors in the 5th led to the Tribe's 6-run inning...his line: 4.1-IP, 4-H, 6-R, 0-ER, 4-BB, 5-SO...was the first time he did not go 5.0 innings in his 10 career starts.
- June 2 at Minnesota he defeated fellow Tampa Bay area native Brad Radke, 4-2 (IP-7.0, H-3, R-2, ER-2, BB-2, SO-1, HR-1)...had a no-hitter for 5.2 innings before Lew Ford singled...Allowed 2-run HR to Corey Koskie in the 7th...Trever Miller and Danys Baez finished up for a combined 4-hitter.
- Remained in the rotation until being placed on the 15-day disabled list following his start on June 8 vs. San Francisco where he exited after 2.0 innings with a strained tendon in his right middle finger
- Was shelved two days later and missed the next 79 games...was 3-6 with a 4.97 ERA.
- Was leading all AL rookie pitchers in innings pitched at the time of his injury (50.2 IP).
- Allowed 16 home runs, which were tied for 3rd most in the AL at the time of his injury...including AAA, surrendered 31 gopher balls this season in 99.2 total innings.
- Made 6 rehabilitation starts for AAA Durham covering the month of August and went 0-2, 5.56 (22.2-IP, 23-H, 14-R, 14-ER, 15-BB, 19-SO, 8-HR).
- Reinstated off the DL on Sep 6 and made 5 starts, going 2-1 but pitching to an 8.69 ERA (19.2-IP, 24-H, 19-ER).
- Best outing after being activated was Sep 17 at Toronto...pitched into the 7th inning and recorded the 11-4 win (6.2-IP, 4-H, 4-R/ER, 3-BB, 5-SO)...runs were results of a pair of 2-run HR (Delgado, Crozier)...was his first win since June 2 at Minnesota.
- His next outing, Sep 22 vs. KC he lasted just 1.0+ inning (50 pitches), the shortest outing of his career: 3-H, 3-R/ER, 3-BB, 0-SO...got a no decision in a 7-6 Royals win in 10 innings...allowed a leadoff HR to David DeJesus.
- Did win his last outing, Sep 29, 9-4 over Boston and Pedro Martinez at Tropicana Field (5.0-IP, 5-H, 3-R/ER, 3-BB, 5-SO).

MAJOR LEAGUE WAIVER RULES

There are four types of waiver requests — major league waivers, special waivers, outright waivers and unconditional release waivers.

Major league waivers are necessary for any player assignment between major league clubs made from August 1 until the day after the close of the regular season. Waivers are not needed for major league assignments during the rest of the year. The trading deadline in which waivers are not needed is July 31.

Special waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from September 1 until the 30th day of the following season.

Outright waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor leauge club from the 31st day of the regular season until August 31.

Unconditional release waivers can be secured at any point during the year.

Earned Run Average – (ERx9)/IP: Earned runs multiplied by 9, then divided by innings pitched (0.1 innings = .333, 0.2 innings = .667).

Batting Average – H/AB: Hits divided by at-bats.

Slugging Percentage – TB/AB: Total number of bases divided by at-bats (single = 1 base, double = 2 bases, triple = 3 bases, home run = 4 bases).

Fielding Averge – (PO+A)/(PO+A+E): Putouts plus assists divided by total chances (putouts plus assists plus errors).

On-Base Percentage – (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF): Hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch divided by at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Win-Loss Percentage: Number of games won divided by total games played.

Magic Numbers: Compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

X-Ray Report

■ Pete is one of four Canadian born players in the Rays organization joining Eric Reece, an infielder from Point Clare, Quebec, catcher Graig Merritt from Maple Ridge, British Columbia, and newcomer right-handed pitcher Robert Findlay from Toronto, Ontario. Both Reece and Merritt played for Bakersfield (A) last season. Reece also played at Montgomery (AA).

■ He played with Team Canada at last summer's Olympic Games in Athens, batting .308 (8-26) with 2 HR and 7 RBI in 8 games. Canada lost to Japan in the bronze medal game. He batted .292 (7-24) with 3 doubles, 3 home runs and 5 RBI at Olympic Qualifiers in November, 2003 in Panama City, Panama. He was 2-for-3 with a HR and 3 RBI in Canada's 11-1 win over Mexico that advanced them to Athens.

■ Played hockey as a youngster...had an ice rink in his backyard.

EARLY CAREER – Pete spoke only French when he signed his first pro contract at age 17.

■ Was drafted in the 16th round of the 1995 draft by Montreal but after just two games with the GCL Expos his contract was voided when it was believed he had as many as five bulging discs.

■ Went to Fort Scott Community College in Kansas because his brief pro experience made him ineligible for NCAA competition.

■ He signed with the Rays after a year at Ft. Scott where he began learning English. He was signed by Rays scout Fernando Arango.

■ Began the 2002 season as the Rockies' no. 2 starter...compiled an 8-11 record in 35 games, 28 starts, marking his first losing campaign since 1994...ranked second on the team with 111 strikeouts.

- Tossed the club's only complete game, Aug. 30 at San Diego, as the Rockies tied the major league record for fewest CG in a single season.

TONY SAUNDERS COURAGE AWARD

The Tony Saunders Courage Award, created in 2000, is given annually to a local student/athlete who best exemplifies the courage, character, competitive desire and fighting spirit of the former Rays pitcher.

Student/athletes who have either demonstrated extraordinary effort or excelled in their sport while overcoming any form of adversity merit consideration.

The winner receives a $2,500 scholarship from the Rays of Hope Foundation, the charitable foundation of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays.

He made a valiant comeback attempt in 2000, but his courageous effort ended August 24 when the 26-year-old suffered a fracture of the same bone while pitching on a rehabilitation assignment for the Class A Florida State League St. Petersburg Devil Rays.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD, PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Edgar Martinez; Jamie Moyer; Jim Thome; Curt Schilling; Al Leiter; Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr. Toby Hall was the Rays 2004 nominee.

John Hancock Financial Services, a company that has long recognized its obligation to the community, is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the Roberto Clemente Award.

2004 TAMPA BAY DEVIL RAYS SEASON SUMMARY

The Rays won a club record 70 games and their 40-38 record at Tropicana Field was the first ever winning season at home...In Manager Lou Piniella's first two seasons, the Rays have gone from 55 wins to 63 to 70...They are one of five major league teams who have increased their win total in each of the past two seasons and the only team to improve +7 games each season. Those teams are listed below. Likewise, the team ERA has decreased each year under Piniella going from 5.25 in 2002 to 4.93 in 2003 to this year's mark of 4.81.

On February 3, 2004 at a Rays off-season caravan stop at the Tampa Chamber of Commerce, Piniella predicted the Rays would not finish in last place, something they had done in the previous six seasons. The Rays finished fourth, three games ahead of Toronto.

DAYS IN EACH POSITION — First Place (9)...Second Place (6)...Third Place (64)...Fourth Place (64)...Fifth Place (42).

RAYS YOUNGSTERS SCORE HIGH WITH BASEBALL AMERICA — In their November 7, 2004 edition, Baseball America ranked three Rays as the best in their age group. Selected the best 18-year-old in the country was Rays' prospect Delmon Young. The best 19-year-old was Rays shortstop BJ Upton and the best 22-year-old in the majors in 2004 was Rays outfielder Carl Crawford.

ATTENDANCE, TV RATINGS UP — The Rays' average home attendance at Tropicana Field went from 13,070 in 2003 to 15,130 in 2004, an increase of nearly 10%...The Rays drew 106,325 more fans in 2004 than in 2003 despite playing 4 fewer home dates. The Rays had only 77 home dates, losing two to the hurricanes and two home dates that were played in Japan. In addition, the Rays had two sellouts, their first sellouts since 1998...TV ratings, too, reflected a jump. The team's local over-the-air ratings increased 33% from the year before, the 3rd greatest improvement in the majors behind Texas (38%) and Detroit (37%).

UNIQUENESS — On June 26, the Rays became the first team in history to climb over .500 after being 18 or more games under .500...The Rays were 10-28 on May 19, but went 26-7 in their next 33 games to get to 36-35...They reached a season high 2 games over .500 on July 3 at 40-38, but went 30-53 starting on Fireworks Day...Since 1999, 14 teams have had runs of 26-7 or better and all but one (Tampa Bay) made it to postseason.

■ The Rays, who won 12 consecutive games, June 9-22, tied with Houston for the longest win streak in the majors this season, also lost 12 straight, Aug 27-Sep 10, becoming only the 2nd team in major league history to win 12+ in a row and lose 12+ in a row in the same season...The 1987 Milwaukee Brewers also did it.

■ The Rays became the 7th team to win 12 or more consecutive games and still finish with a losing record...The others: 1905 NY Highlanders (Yankees) won 12 straight and went 71-78; 1942 Indians won 13 straight and went 75-79; 1980 Twins won 12 straight and went 77-84; 1991 Phillies won 13 straight games and went 78-84; 1999 Padres won 14 straight and went 74-88 and the same year the Orioles won 13 straight and went 78-84.

■ The Rays became only the 11th team all-time, the 7th team since 1900 and only the 3rd team in the last 72 years to go 40 or more games into the season before winning back-to-back games...The Rays did it in their 40th game, a 5-3 win over Cleveland...The only other teams since 1932 who did it were the 1988 Orioles (54-107) and the 1999 Marlins (64-98) who both failed to win back-to-back games until their 42nd game.

■ The Rays posted a 15-3 record in Interleague play, equaling the 2nd most IL wins ever, tying the 2002 Braves and trailing only the 2002 Oakland A's who won 16...In 2003, the Rays were 3-15 in IL play, the most IL losses by one team...The Rays won 13 straight IL games at one point, matching the Yankees for the longest in IL history.

■ The Rays were 0-10 at Yankee Stadium in 2004 becoming the first team to go 0-10 or worse in a road park in one season since the 1961 Cubs went 0-11 at Sportsmen's Park (St. Louis)...They are the first AL team since 1960 when the Red Sox went 0-11 at Comiskey Park...It is the first time a team has gone 0-10 or worse at Yankee Stadium since the 1957 Kansas City A's went 0-11.

■ While the Rays were only 29-52 on the road, they were 8-1 in NL parks and they defeated Randy Johnson, Curt Schilling, Pedro Martinez, Carl Pavano and Johan Santana in their home parks.

■ The Rays opened the season in Japan and defeated the Yankees, 8-3, extending their opening day win streak to 5 straight, longest current opening day win streak.

■ The Rays had three games postponed or cancelled due to Hurricanes Frances and Jeanne, but survived the busiest hurricane season in the state's history.

■ The Rays franchise best 20-6 (.769) record in June was the best month by an American League team in 2004...It was the 2nd highest win pct. for one month in Lou Piniella's managerial career behind the 20-5 (.800) record his Mariners posted in April of 2001...The Rays scored 148 runs in June, their 2nd greatest scoring month ever behind May of 1999 (157)...Rays 4.07 ERA was their lowest for one month since Sep-Oct, 2001 (3.73)...Rays batted .281 for the month tied for 4th in the AL.

TEAM TOPICS — At the time the major league rosters expanded on September 1, the Rays had the youngest team in the American League with an average age of 28.32...The Rays used 12 rookies for the season and three made quite a mark.

■ On August 17, BJ Upton became the first teenager to hit a home run in the big leagues since LA's Adrian Beltre in 1999 and on September 9 he homered off the Yankees' Brad Halsey becoming the youngest player to hit a home run at Yankee Stadium since Ken Griffey Jr. in 1989.

■ On Sept. 14, Scott Kazmir (20 years, 8 months, 21 days) became the youngest left-handed pitcher to beat the Red Sox at Fenway since Hal Newhouser did it for the Tigers on Aug 3, 1941 at the age of 20 years, 2 months, 13 days. Kazmir defeated Pedro Martinez, 5-2. Two weeks later on Sept. 29, fellow rookie Doug Waechter also defeated Pedro as the two became just the 11th and 12th rookies to beat the 3-time Cy Young Award winner. In his short stint with the Rays, Kazmir averaged 11.07 strikeouts per 9 innings.

■ Jorge Cantu finished 3rd in batting among AL rookies with 150 or more plate appearances with a .301 average. He finished with 20 doubles in only 173 at-bats...Only one player in major league history finished a season with 20 or more doubles in so few at-bats: Earle Brucker with the 1938 Philadelphia A's had 21 doubles in 171 at-bats.

GO YOUNG — The Rays had two of the four youngest players in the majors this season in Upton and Kazmir....Over the last 25 years, we were able to find 12 instances of teammates who were 20 years of age (or younger).

IT'S A HIT! — Rays pitchers led the AL in hit batters for the third consecutive year and the 6th time in their 7 years and

Devil Rays and the Rule V Draft

Minor league players who have played three seasons (if they were signed when they were 20) or four seasons (if they were signed when they were 19) that are not on a 40-man major league roster, are eligible to be drafted by other major league clubs in the Rule V Draft held each year at baseball's winter meetings. When a player is drafted, he must remain on the 40-man roster of the team that selects him until the season ends and must spend at last 90 days on the 25-man roster before he can be optioned to the minors without going through waivers. The team from which he as drafted can reclaim him for half of the draft price ($50,000) if he is placed on waivers.

The Devil Rays have been active in the Rule Draft in five of the six drafts during their existence. In 2002, the Rays became the first team since the 1968 Chicago Cubs to have three Rule 5 players on their opening day roster and the first team since the 1981 Minnesota Twins to have three rule 5 players on their roster at any given time during the season. NEW LOOK FOR '05 SEASON

The Devil Rays will introduce two new uniforms in 2005. Tampa Bay will feature their white sleeveless (vest) jersey as their everyday home uniform with the addition of a solid green uniform top as an alternate that can also be worn on the road. Another new road jersey this season is an alternate gray sleeveless (vest) jersey in addition to the Rays' standard gray away uniforms.

The road jerseys also feature an updated, easier to read version of the "Tampa Bay" logotype; all uniforms have integrated the team's blue to the piping.

ALL-STAR BALLOTING

Since the first All-Star Game in 1933, selection of the All-Stars has shifted from fans to managers on several occasions. In 1933 and 1934, selection of the All-Star teams was up to the fans, who could vote for the All-Star through newspaper ads featuring official ballots.

From 1935 to 1946, each league's eight managers selected the participants while the All-Star team managers chose the starters. Balloting for the starting lineups, tabulated by the Associated Press, was returned to the fans from 1947 to 1957. However, a case of ballot stuffing by Cincinnati fans in 1957 prompted Commissioner Ford Frick to make player selection the privilege of managers, players and coaches from 1958 to 1969.

Commissioner Bowie Kuhn returned voting to the fans in 1970. Since then, All-Star Fan Balloting has developed into the largest voter participation program in the U.S. outside state and national elections.

Devil Rays in 2001

- The Rays became the first AL team to lose 100 games since the 1996 Detroit Tigers, but went 24-23 starting August 10. During that stretch, the Rays most often used starting lineup had an average age of 25 years: Steve Cox (1B), Brent Abernathy (2B), Chris Gomez (SS), Jared Sandberg (3B), Jason Tyner (LF), Randy Winn (CF), Ben Grieve (RF) and Toby Hall (C). And the starting rotation was Joe Kennedy (22), Nick Bierbrodt (23), Tanyon Sturtze (30), Ryan Rupe (26) and Paul Wilson (28).
- The Rays became just the 2nd major league team to throw just one complete game in a season, joining the 1995 Colorado Rockies.
- With the trades of Fred McGriff, Mike DiFelice and Albie Lopez, the Rays became the youngest team in the majors in late July. The Rays played a club record 16 rookies.
- The Rays handed 20-game winner Roger Clemens two of his three losses and were within one out of handing a third defeat. The last time an AL team lost 100 games and defeated a 20-game winner was the 1991 Cleveland Indians who beat Detroit's Bill Gullickson (20-9) twice.
- The Rays went 27-61 during the first half and 35-39 during the 2nd half.

Devil Rays in 1999

- The Devil Rays suffered the most injuries in the major leagues in 1999. The Rays put 18 different players on the disabled list (22 total moves to the DL) after Opening Day. That number doesn't include INF Aaron Ledesma who dislocated his left thumb in the final spring training game and was out until May 12, or Randy Winn who was out from Sept 5 to Oct 2 with a sprained right ankle.
- All told, the 22 in-season moves accounted for 863 days on the DL. Fifteen of the Rays' 25-man Opening Day roster spent time on the disabled list including 8 of the 11 pitchers and four of the five pitchers in the club's season-opening rotation. Of the 13 pitchers who started a game for the Rays in 1999, eight spent time on the DL.
- On May 22, the Rays were 22-20, 2nd best record ever by a 2nd year expansion team, but an injury ridden, 16-day span, May 12-28, left the Rays reeling.

2004 Tampa Bay Devil Rays Minor League Summary

YOUNG'S TOWN: In his first professional season, Delmon Young, the 2003 number one overall draft pick, belted 25 home runs, the most ever for a Rays first-year minor leaguer. His 116 RBI led the South Atlantic League as well as the Rays organization and set a new Charleston single-season record. It is the second-highest RBI total ever for a Tampa Bay minor leaguer behind Steve Cox's 127 in 1999. He was one of just six members of the 20/20 club this season and the only player in the minors to post 25 home runs and steal 20 or more bases. Young was named the Topps SAL August Player of the Month as well as the South Atlantic League's Most Outstanding Major League Prospect, marking the second straight year a Rays farmhand has received the honor (B.J. Upton).

CHARLESTON CHEWS: Charleston's return to the playoffs for the first time since 1988 was anchored offensively by Wes Bankston, Jason Pridie and Delmon Young.

Bankston and Young became the first teammates in the SAL to each record 100 RBI in a season since Ronald Wright (104) and Andruw Jones (101) did it for Macon in 1995. Pridie finished the regular season with 103 runs scored, just the second time the century mark has been reached in Charleston's history and the most since Marvel Wynne had 106 in 1980 for the Charleston Rainbows.

In addition, infielder Elliot Johnson landed in the record books when he homered in his first three at-bats coming in the first, second and third innings on May 28 in a game that saw the RiverDogs belt an SAL-record eight home runs. He had also gone deep in his final at-bat the previous night making it four straight at-bats with a home run in four consecutive innings. Though it is unknown if this has ever happened in minor league baseball, this feat has never been accomplished in the Major Leagues and according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Carl Reynolds of the Chicago White Sox in 1930 is the only Major League player to hit a home run in each of the first three innings of a game.

MR. K: Righthander Chad Orvella led all minor league relievers in 2004 striking out 116 batters over 73.2 innings. Orvella appeared in 45 games making stops in Charleston (A), Bakersfield (A), Montgomery (AA) and Durham (AAA). The reliever converted 12 of 13 save opportunities while holding opponents to a .159 average and issuing just 10 walks all season. His 14.17 strikeouts/9 IP ratio was the 6th highest in all of minor league baseball.

CLOSING THE DOOR: Reliever Josh Parker saved 19 games with Montgomery in 2004 before joining Durham to close out the year. In four professional seasons in the minors with the Devil Rays, Parker has compiled 68 saves. Only Bart Miadich (ANA, TEX & SD) has saved more games (71) than Parker over the stretch.

OLYMPIANS: Two Rays farmhands were selected to represent their respective homelands at the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens, Greece. Catcher Pete Laforest played for his native Canada while catcher Chairon Isenia took the field for the Netherlands. Isenia batted .353 (6-for-17), ninth best among Olympic competitors, while Laforest belted a pair of home runs and drove in seven runs in eight games as Canada fell just shy of the Bronze medal.

2004- Homered in his first three at-bats coming in the 1st, 2nd and 3rd innings 5/28; had also gone deep in his final at-bat the previous night making it four straight at-bats with a home run in four consecutive innings...Though it is unknown if this has ever happened in minor league baseball, this feat has never been accomplished in the Major Leagues and according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Carl Reynolds of the Chicago White Sox in 1930 is the only Major League player to hit a home run in each of the first three innings of a game...Hit in a career-high 14 straight 4/14-5/1...Stole 43 bases, fourth most in the league and tied for tops in the organization...Doubled in 4 straight games 7/20-23...Tabbed by Baseball America as having the best strike-zone discipline in the Rays organization.

History of Professional Baseball in Tampa Bay

Although the 1998 Devil Rays played Florida's first regular season major league game outside of Miami, the league's roots in the Tampa Bay Area can be traced back some 91 years. In fact, more major league spring training games have been played in St. Petersburg than in any other city.

Major League Baseball's roots in Tampa Bay can be traced back to 1913 when the Chicago Cubs moved their spring training operation from New Orleans to Tampa. The following year the St. Louis Browns came to St. Petersburg for spring workouts.

Except for the years between 1942 and 1945 when wartime restrictions limited travel for spring training, major league baseball has had a presence in Tampa Bay ever since.

Even during the war years, the area found a way to keep the National Pastime alive. To fill the wartime void, Tampa fashioned the Inter-Social League in 1943. Crowds averaged several thousand in West Tampa and Ybor City to see players that included the fathers of Lou Piniella and Dave Magadan.

Nine teams have trained in St. Petersburg: the Boston Braves (1922-37), St. Louis Cardinals (1938-42; 1946-97), New York Yankees (1925-42; 1946-50; 1952-61), New York Giants (1951), New York Mets (1962-87), Baltimore Orioles (1993-95); St. Louis Browns (1914), Philadelphia Phillies (1915-18) and the Devil Rays.

Tampa has been the spring home of six major league clubs: Chicago Cubs (1913-16), Cincinnati Reds (1931-42; 1946-87), Boston Red Sox (1919), Detroit Tigers (1930), Washington Senators (1920-29), Chicago White Sox (1954-59) and the New York Yankees (1996-).

More than 70 Hall of Famers have trained in Tampa or St. Petersburg alone, not counting dozens of others who spent springs in Sarasota, Clearwater, Bradenton, and Lakeland.

Plant City, Dunedin, and Tarpon Springs have also been spring training hosts bringing the total number of major league teams who trained in Greater Tampa Bay to 19.

The first game between two major league teams in the area took place in 1914, as the Grapefruit League was established, in which teams played a five-week schedule of exhibition games. On March 26 of that year, at Plant Field on the campus of the University of Tampa, the host Chicago Cubs edged the Browns, 3-2, despite making six errors.

The next day, the two teams met at Coffee Pot Bayou in St. Petersburg and the result was the same, a 3-2 Cubs win. James Leslie (Hippo) Vaughn was the winning pitcher for the Cubs as an estimated 4,000 looked on.

Minor League Baseball began in Tampa Bay in 1919, when Tampa became a charter member of the Class D Florida State League. After finishing dead last the first year, Tampa went 89-28 in 1920, a .745 winning percentage, still the best in FSL history. It was that year that the St. Petersburg Saints entered the FSL. By 1922, the Saints had won a FSL crown of their own, the first of eight they would win, most in league history.

The teams from St. Petersburg and Tampa alone have played more than 14,500 minor league games. Add Dunedin, Clearwater and Lakeland and the number soars to 27,000.

Abrasion: Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.
Adhesion: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.
Anabolic Steroids: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormones).
Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Arthrogram: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.
Arthroscopy: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.
Bone Scan: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.
Bursa: A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimized the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.
Cartilage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.
CAT Scan: Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.
Clavicle: The collar bone.
Coccyx: The "tail bone"; a group of four vertebrae that are fused together, located at the terminal end of the spine.
Contusion: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.
Cyst: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.
Dislocation: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.
Edema: Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.
Femur: Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.
Fibula: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.
Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.
Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.
Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue has been significant, and in some cases, totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.
Heat Cramps: Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.
Heat Exhaustion: Mild form of shock due to to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.
Heat Stroke: Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat resulting in death if not cared for.
Hematoma: Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.
Hip Pointer: Contusion to the iliac crest.
Humerus: Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.
Inflammation: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.
Labrum (Labrum Glenoidule): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.
Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.
Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Lumbar Vertebrae: Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.
Lumbosacral: Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.
Medial Collateral Ligament: Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.
Meniscus: Crescent-shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." there are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.
Metacarpals: Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.
Metatarsals: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.
Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Quadricep Muscles: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.
Radiography: Taking of X-rays.

RAYSVISION

"RaysVision" is the entertainment presentation Rays fans experience when they visit Tropicana Field and is produced by the Rays Event Productions Department. The term "RaysVision" encompasses: video, matrix and audio production; graphic design and photography; mascot and live entertainment; facility tours and creative support for non-Rays events at Tropicana Field.

Situated in right field is a 24' x 32' Mitsubishi Mark IIIHB Diamond Vision full color video screen.

Installed in 1998, this crisp display showcases a multitude of in-game entertainment, flashy graphics, videos, instant replays, interactive quizzes and games, and most importantly, live shots of the fans. In addition to the in-game production, the RaysVision video crew also writes, shoots, produces and edits nearly every Rays video project.

Flanking the video screen are two 16' x 30' Daktronics monochrome matrix displays. In addition to displaying a traditional linescore, the award-winning matrix show also displays a variety of statistics, out-of-town scores & updates, messages, graphics, entertaining animations, fan birthdays and special occasions. These displays are supported by 2 lineup displays, and, 4 tier level auxiliary matrix screens.

Additionally, a 3.5' x 37' Daktronics green matrix board appears in centerfield. Named after long-time Bay Area baseball supporter Jack Lake, this display is specifically dedicated to presenting current and upcoming Rays community related information.

Tropicana Field's sound system is the original speaker system that was installed with the Florida Sun Coast Dome in 1990. Since 1998, the Rays have supplemented the system with amplification and distribution technology and digital playback equipment. In addition to the variety of music, effects and announcements you'll hear at a Rays game, most Rays promotional radio commercials are recorded and edited in our audio control room.

Since the Rays first took the field on March 31, 1998, our fans have been treated to a live performance of the National Anthem(s). In keeping with our community spirit, many of these performances have been by local talent. The inaugural Anthem performance was delivered by Ms. Belinda Womack, accompanied by a 75 member choir that consisted of vocalists from three choirs, whose churches were relocated when construction began on The Florida Sun Coast Dome in the late 1980's.

Additionally, our Nation's colors are presented at each event by a local honor guard from a variety of groups including the U.S. Armed Forces, U.S. Coast Guard, College and High School ROTC units, Veteran and Civic Associations, Fire and Police Departments, and, the Boys and Girl Scouts of America.

At every game, many young fans are surprised on the spot and invited to: present the first game ball, deliver a surprise ceremonial first pitch, get the game underway with a hearty shout of "Play Ball!", announce a half-inning of action on Sundays, take part in interactive contests, or even sing "Take Me Out To The Ballgame."

In 2001, RaysVision inherited the Tropicana Field Tours program. Entering 2005, nearly $20,000 has been raised for the Rays of Hope Foundation through Tropicana Field Tours.

The RaysVision Graphics department was added to the fold in 2002, and is responsible for most of the design and print projects as they pertain to the team and the facility, including this media guide. In 2004 alone, over 1,900 individual graphic projects were generated by our artists. From 2002 thru 2004, RaysVision Graphics developed, designed and produced the team's advertising campaigns completely in-house.

In 2003, Raymond and Mascot Coordination was also placed under the RaysVision banner.

Tropicana Field

Tropicana Field, home of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, closed its doors in October 1996 for a 17-month, $85 million facelift that transformed the facility from functional to intriguingly innovative, incorporating baseball traditions throughout the dining, shopping and entertainment complex while adding 319,000 square feet of space.

Originally named the Florida Suncoast Dome and then the ThunderDome, Tropicana Field's 1.1 million square feet include unique design features and fan amenities found nowhere else in the major leagues.

- Tropicana Field is the first major league park in more than 20 years to feature artificial turf and all-dirt base paths. It features the new natural look FieldTurf (see below). Only four other artificial turf ballparks have ever featured all-dirt base paths: Houston's Astrodome (1966–1971); San Francisco's Candlestick Park in 1971; Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium in the early '70s; and, most recently, St. Louis' Busch Stadium (1970–1976). Chicago's Comiskey Park had all-dirt base paths with an artificial turf infield and grass outfield in the early '70s.
- Tropicana Field became the first major league baseball facility to install FieldTurf. In March 2000, the revolutionary new synthetic grass, FieldTurf was installed at Tropicana Field and on April 7 the first professional baseball game was played on the new surface when the Rays hosted the Cleveland Indians in their home opener. FieldTurf combines blades of artificial grass with a specially patented infill mixture of sand and ground rubber. The ground rubber is a recycled material made from NIKE. The infill surrounds each FieldTurf fibre like natural earth holds a blade of grass and provides a non-compactible, resilient, natural earth feel.
- In keeping with baseball's traditions, the bullpens were relocated after the 1998 season to the field, giving fans a clear view of activity before and during games. The Devil Rays bullpen is located along the right field line, while the visitors bullpen is located along the left field line.
- Ebbets Field was an influence for Tropicana Field in two ways—one by coincidence, the other by design. Tropicana Field's asymmetrical outfield dimensions closely follow those of the Brooklyn Dodgers' old home, a fact that became evident only after those measurements had been determined. Conversely, Tropicana Field's grand, eight-story-high rotunda entrance is designed from the very blueprints used for the rotunda at Ebbets Field, built in 1913.
- Fans can enter the rotunda by following a 900-foot, tropical-theme, ceramic mosaic walkway. Called SunSations, The Progress Energy Walkway is the largest outdoor ceramic mural in Florida and one of the five largest in the United States. Made with 1,849,091 brightly colored 1x1-inch tiles, it depicts the sun, sea and beach.
- Tropicana Field features the world's second-largest cable-supported domed roof (Georgia Dome is the largest). It's made of six acres of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass and it virtually supports itself with 180 miles of cables connected by struts. Opposing forces of tension and compression keep the roof in an arc. Tropicana Field's roof is slanted at a 6.5 degree angle, dropping from 225 feet above second base to 85 feet at the center field wall. The slanted roof reduced the overall construction costs and decreased the volume of air under the dome by 16.8 million cubic feet. Accordingly, that reduced the amount of air that requires climate control treatment. It is built to withstand wind of up to 115 miles per hour.

Tropicana Field History

The original Florida Suncoast Dome was opened to the public on March 3, 1990, at a cost of $138 million. It became the ThunderDome in 1993 with the arrival of the area's National Hockey League expansion franchise, the Tampa Bay Lightning. It was renamed Tropicana Field on Oct. 4, 1996.

The facility has set attendance records in a number of sports. During their three seasons playing in the building, the Lightning established the then-top 20 attendance marks in NHL history. On April 23, 1996, a crowd of 28,183 attended Game Four of the Eastern Conference Quarterfinals between the Lightning and the Philadelphia Flyers—the largest indoor single-game attendance figure in NHL history.

The Arena Football League's Tampa Bay Storm set all its records while playing in the facility, including the largest single-game record of 28,746. In 1990, Davis Cup tennis was played at the dome, with a record crowd of 53,150 attending the three-day event. Also in 1990, 25,710 NBA fans saw the Chicago Bulls play an exhibition game against the Seattle Supersonics in what was then the largest crowd ever to attend a basketball game in the state of Florida. That figure was surpassed first by the 26,102 who attended the 1994 first-round NCAA Regionals, then again on March 20 and 22, 1998, when sellout crowds of 40,589—a record for a non-Final Four game— watched the NCAA Regional and semifinal games featuring Syracuse, UCLA, Duke and Kentucky. The 1999 Final Four, featuring Duke, Ohio State, Michigan State and eventual-champion Connecticut, drew capacity crowds of 40,632 and 39,113 on March 27 and 29. The largest crowd to date—47,150—appeared at the Aug. 11, 1990, concert featuring The New Kids on the Block.

DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to the memory of our friend
Paul C. Smith
1958-2005

"Paul was a consummate professional, fun to be around, well-respected. He was the kind of person you would seek out to have a baseball conversation with. He loved the game. His passing has had an affect on all of us throughout the organization from our ownership to the front office to the clubhouse."
